To Republicans of New Hampshire

This is a national and not a state campaign.

It is so recognized by the leading progressives of New Hampshire who are not office-holders by appointment of Governor Bass.

Read the names below of progressives who are supporting Taft and then the names of those supporting Roosevelt, and ask yourselves who are disinterested and whom would you follow.

What Taft Stands For

For sanity and Safety.
For enforcement of law.
For keeping party pledges.
For prevention of waste.
For International Peace.
For the rule of law and not of hysteria.
For regulation of Railroads.
For Postal Savings and a Parcel Post.
For a corporation tax.
For a workingman's compensation act.
For suppressing the "Get Rich Quick" frauds.
For development of American markets.
For remedies for abuses through legislation.
For business efficiency in government.
Nothing is asked for President Taft that has not been accorded every Republican president.

President Taft has prosecuted the trusts and they have combined and contributed to defeat him. He has no relations with "practical men" of the Perkins, Munsey, McCormick type.

What Roosevelt Stands For

For agitation and turmoil.
For compromise with monopoly.
For relaxation in government.
For personal rule or party ruin.
For every disappointed office seeker.
For discredited political bosses in states where Roosevelt delegates can be elected.
For discarded political methods when they will work to his advantage.
For violating the traditions of the Republic.
For broken personal and party pledges.
For political contributions from the trusts when he is a candidate.
For industrial discontent.
Four years ago it was Taft or "me"; now it is "me" or nobody.

Harriman was a "practical man" when he contributed $200,000 to Roosevelt's campaign.
Roosevelt has now found other "practical men" in Perkins of Steel Trust, Munsey of the Steel Trust and Boston Journal, McCormick of the Harvester Trust, Ross Fling of Pennsylvania, Ross Ward of New York, Ross Brown of Ohio, and Ross Lyon of Texas.

ANOTHER BOODLE CAMPAIGN

The sworn returns of primary expenses in New York City show that it cost Roosevelt $50,000 to get 15,000 votes in the recent primaries, or practically $1 per vote. This is twice what "Uncle Ike" Stephenson of Wisconsin spent in the Wisconsin primaries. Stephenson was tried by the U. S. Senate for a scandalous use of money. The people's call for Roosevelt is more expensive than the popular demand for Stephenson. George W. Perkins, organizer of the Harvester Trust and director of the Steel Trust, Frank A. Munsey of the Steel Trust and Boston Journal, and Alexander S. Cochran, director of the Union Trust Company, each contributed $10,000 of the money spent in New York City for Roosevelt.

TAFT WILL BE NOMINATED

The Standing Today.

Taft	386
Roosevelt	174
LaFollette	36
Cummins	4
Unclassified	4
Total delegates	1076
Necessary to nominate	539
Taft needs	153
Roosevelt needs	363
Yet to be elected	472

Of the 472 delegates yet to be elected, Taft needs only one in three to nominate him. The states conceded to Taft yet to elect give him more than 250 additional delegates. He will undoubtedly have 300 additional and be nominated by a large majority. New Hampshire stood by Lincoln and Grant when political soreheads tried to defeat their nomination. Let us stand by our historic record and win with Taft at Chicago.

ROOSEVELT AND RECIPROCITY

Republicans are urged to vote against Taft and for Roosevelt by the third termers because of Canadian Reciprocity, which Canada rejected and which is dead.

Governor Dackholder, who led the fight of the farmers against the treaty, says: "In that contest one of the chief obstacles we encountered was the attitude of ex-President Roosevelt, who with his friends gave very earnest support to the Reciprocity movement. . . . Mr. Roosevelt was not only wrong on the Reciprocity question, but in addition to that he entertaining such revolutionary views concerning the courts of the country that I am obliged to oppose him and to join the friends of President Taft in earnest support of his candidacy for renomination."

Roosevelt expressed his convictions on Reciprocity in 1911. Now he is bidding for votes, regardless of his past.

BASS AND TAFT

A stenographic report of the speech of Robert P. Bass at Franklin, October 17, 1910, when he was a candidate for governor, and which was printed in the newspapers of the day following, reads: "The Democratic leaders in this campaign are trying to persuade the people of New Hampshire that the Democratic party is responsible, both in state and nation, for enacting progressive principles into law. They say nothing of the splendid work of those great progressive leaders. Theodore Roosevelt, Governor Hughes and President Taft."

When Governor Bass thus ranked Taft with Roosevelt and Hughes as "great progressive leaders," everything which the governor now does in his attempt to sustain his false charges that Taft is a reactionary, had occurred. The President had signed the Payne-Aldrich tariff law in August, 1909, more than a year before. The Ballinger trouble, the alleged withdrawal of federal patronage from insurgents, friendliness with Senator Crane and others, etc., and Mr. Bass was as fully informed of them then as he is today.

Vote For Taft Delegates at the Caucuses April 23

TAFT LEAGUE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE. HENRY M. BAKER, Chairman

PERSONAL APPEAL TO THE SOLDIERS

Washington, April 20, 1912
To the Soldiers of New Hampshire:
During my entire public life I have earnestly sought to benefit the veterans of the Civil War, and have received many commendations from them for the work I did. As chairman of the senate committee on pensions for many years it was my special privilege to serve them, and I did so in every way possible. The party is now facing an emergency, and I want to appeal to the soldiers to do me a favor, and that is to go to the caucuses and vote in favor of Taft delegates. It is a well known fact that the man who is now opposing him so bitterly and unjustly was never favorable to pension legislation, while President Taft has unhesitatingly signed every bill that has been sent to him.

The future of the party is at stake the soldiers of the country can probably determine the choice between President Taft and ex-President Roosevelt. I trust that my appeal to you will not be in vain, but that the man who so briefly defended the union in the days that tried men's souls will not rally to the support of one of the best Presidents the country has ever had, and see to it that the delegates from New Hampshire to the Chicago convention will vote for the renomination of President Taft.
Fraternally Yours,
J. H. Gallinger
The republican caucuses will be held in all of the wards this evening. It is for Portsmouth interest to send a Taft delegation to the state and district conventions.

STRAIGHT ROAD TO VICTORY

April 19, 1912.

Dear Sir:
As a Republican having regard for the success of the party in November, I am calling your attention to certain facts:
Dear in mind that an election follows the nomination at Chicago. If we cannot elect President Taft, we cannot elect anybody.
We must stand or fall upon the record of the past four years; to by Theodore Roosevelt and his nominate another is to confess failure.
He has prosecuted revenue frauds and recovered millions of dollars. Judicial appointments have been taken out of politics.
Postal savings banks have been promises.

Emotion may carry primaries, but it will not survive a five months' campaign.
In the final analysis, the voters will ask, "What is right? What is just?"
President Taft has kept every pledge of his party.
He has enforced the laws against trusts and they have combined to defeat his nomination.
He has made the Post Office Department self-sustaining and paved the way for one-cent postage in the near future.
He has preserved peace with Mexico and negotiated a treaty of general arbitration which was defeated by Theodore Roosevelt and his friends in the Senate.
He has prosecuted revenue frauds and recovered millions of dollars. Judicial appointments have been taken out of politics.
Postal savings banks have been established.

A parcel post has been urged up on Congress.
A corporation tax was often imposed, yielding thirty million dollars annually.
President Taft's part in the foreign going has been performed without self-exploitation.
He believes in constructive legislation rather than in visionary schemes that lead only to turmoil.
The attacks made upon him by Theodore Roosevelt have been cruel, unjust, and unfounded.
If a patriotic public servant, like President Taft, is to be sacrificed to gratify the personal pique and inordinate ambition of Theodore Roosevelt, defeat stares the Republican party in the face.
The government of the fathers has been our pride and won the admiration of the world for over a century. Roosevelt alone has discovered it to be a failure.

The policies of Bryan divided and defeated the Democrat party in 1896. The policies of Roosevelt, if successful, will divide and destroy the Republican party in 1912.
Therefore, Republicans of New Hampshire, don't be stay-at-homes, but do your duty on April 23rd. Go to the caucuses and vote for Taft delegates.
Very truly yours,
HENRY M. BAKER.
Compare the list of men in the State who are for Taft with those for Roosevelt. It will mean only one thing---A Vote For Taft.
It is for the interest of this city to be for the administration. Vote for Taft this evening.

A vote for the Taft delegation this evening will be an expression of gratitude by the people of Portsmouth to Senator Gallinger for what he has done for the navy yard.
It would be well to compare the list of delegates from this city to be voted upon this evening. The Taft delegation represent those who have the real interest of the city at heart.

Manager of St. Louis Nationals and Two of His Stars--Cards are Making things Hum in National League Once More

St. Louis, April 23.—As was the case this time last season, Roger Bresnahan and his Cardinals are stirring up things in the National League. The team started on its swing around the western circuit with distinctly better prospects than he club encountered last year. At the start of last season the team encountered heartbreaking setbacks through injuries to them but quickly rallied and made a splendid eastern trip. This year, with no bad breaks to mar the outlook and the men all fighting like tigers for a place near the top, the team has the best outlook confronting it that it has enjoyed at any time since the regime of Roger Bresnahan. The Cards have exactly the same team as in 1911, with the exception of one or two new pitchers. Roger says if

"Slim" Sallee, his star southpaw, keeps in good shape St. Louis will be very prominent on the baseball map all season. Evans, the Cards' brilliant young fielder, is the batting hero of the team this spring. His timely wallpops have won a few games in view of the fact that Bresnahan has had his men playing together for three years, and all youngsters at that, the Cards ought to be there at the finish.

It will accompany them, also a Mr. Seaward from Kittery Point will be included in the crowd. Any one who wishes to take the trip with the class can do so.
Mrs. May Rollins of Dover is visiting Miss Ruth Bartlett for a few days.
This evening at the Second M. E. church occurs the concert by the noted whistler, Mr. Charles C. Groat, of Boston, who will be ably assisted by Miss Ethel Seavey of Portsmouth soprano, and Miss Ellen Bowden, pianist. There will be ice cream and cake on sale in the vestry.
Miss Mabel Hodgson passed Monday and today with friends in Newington.
Austin A. Googins, clerk in the general store at the navy yard, has received an offer of transfer to Guantanamo, Cuba, at a salary of $1200 per year.

Fifty Bodies Recovered From Titanic Disaster--The Senate Hearing Resumed at Washington.

Definite news from the cable steamer Mackay-Bennett, searching for bodies of victims of the Titanic disaster is that 50 bodies have been found, but only those that can be embalmed will be brought to port, those not embalmed being buried at sea, with divine service.

Many of the bodies were unidentifiable. They were found more than 50 miles from where the Titanic sank, having evidently come within the influence of the gulf stream.

Senator Martine of New Jersey introduced in the United States senate Monday a resolution calling for the sending of revenue cutters to cruise around the neighborhood of the disaster for at least a month, in the hope of finding more bodies.

Survivors of the wreck who have been under treatment in hospitals have nearly all recovered. The relief funds now exceed $250,000.

A pathetic story supplementary to that of the wreck, comes from Pittsburgh, Pa., where John Panula had established a home for his family, who were coming over from Finland. Mrs. Panula, her daughter and five sons, were lost with the Titanic.

Vice-President P. A. S. Franklin of the International Mercantile Marine company, appeared as a witness at the senate inquiry, resumed Monday in Washington. J. Bruce Ismay was also present.

Mr. Franklin could not tell who sent the message that the Titanic was proceeding to Halifax and would probably dock on Wednesday and said he first knew that the Titanic had gone down between 6.20 and 6.30 p. m., on April 15. Reassuring reports were based on rumors that came to the White Star offices. The Associated Press was asked to hold back the first report of the accident to the Titanic to allay anxiety, but this was not done.

He told of the attempts to get reliable information throughout the day on Monday, April 15, and of what was done by the officials of the White Star line after the news of the disaster was received. He denied that he had at any time attempted to censor the wireless.

A statement was issued in behalf of President Taft Monday, denying that Major Archibald Butt went to Rome on a mission for the president, adding that the trip was solely for the benefit of Major Butt's health.

The statement said that the President "feels Major Butt's loss keenly and is only consoled by the knowledge that he gave up his life as a soldier and a man."

Boston paid tribute to the heroism of those who sank with the Titanic at a memorial meeting in Faneuil hall Monday afternoon.

COVERING HIS TRACKS.

Pennsylvania, in an attempt to divert attention from his socialistic Columbus, Ohio, speech, and from William Flinn of Pittsburgh, his Pennsylvania manager, Theodore Roosevelt, attacked President Taft and Senator Boies Penrose. The fact is that there is not a character in public life today who has the notorious record of "Old Bill" Flinn, and Roosevelt did not dare mention his name in Pittsburgh.

Until 1901 Flinn was the "boss" of Pittsburgh. He was run out of power by the decent people of that community. In the few years he "bossed" Pittsburgh Flinn received from men he put in public office contracts aggregating more than $21,000,000, as is shown by the public records.

In 1895 Flinn attempted to make a contract with Matthew Stanley Quay, United States Senator, which he wrote out in his own hand, a copy of which is still in existence. In this document Flinn bound himself to deliver to Quay the votes of all Pittsburgh and Allegheny county legislators and Congressmen and all delegates to State and national conventions in return for which Quay was to protect Flinn in his private and political business in the legislature of the State.

The proposition was so rotten that even Quay turned it down.

This is the man Theodore Roosevelt, former President of the United States, has resurrected into political life under the plea of "Let the People Rule."

PRESIDENT TAFT RESENTS INSULT.

After enduring with minute patience not only because of the dignity of the high office which he holds, but also because of the personal friendship which he has enjoyed and had hoped to maintain with former President Theodore Roosevelt, President W. H. Taft has finally been forced to resent the misrepresentation of his actual position on public issues, the intrigues which have been entered with respect to his official actions and to the conduct of this campaign and attacks upon him which not infrequently involved his personal honor as a man as well as his integrity as President of the United States.

The President and his campaign managers have sought throughout his campaign, by a dignified and fair course of conduct, to maintain the Republican party as a militant power for good in the land, with a view to another triumphant victory at the polls in November.

On the contrary, Theodore Roosevelt and his friends, and backers have conducted an organized campaign to wreck the Republican party, not only by engendering personal animosities by attacks on individual leaders of the party in various States, but by offering and supporting a national platform which is rank Socialism. As a result of this situation Director William B. McKinley, of the National Taft Bureau, issued the following statement to the public on April 14:

"The outcome of the Pennsylvania primaries is plainly indicative of the fact that national issues are playing only a small part in some States in the campaign for the Republican nomination for President.

"Instead of constructive statesmanship being put forth in an effort to solve the problem before the country and as a bid for votes on the ground of merit, a nation-wide campaign of willful and malicious misrepresentation, vilification and assault on the President of the United States has been elaborated. Such a campaign amounting in fact to a conspiracy, not only to humiliate the President personally, but to commit the Republican party to rank Socialism, has not only been countenanced but conducted by former President Theodore Roosevelt.

"The time has arrived to call a halt on such proceedings. President Taft, always mindful of the decencies of human conduct, believing that friendship is a sacred thing and that, like truth, it should be maintained even at a personal sacrifice, and also believing that the American people expect the occupant of the highest office in the gift of the nation, as well as those who have formerly occupied it, to respect the dignity of that office, has, during the course of this campaign, patiently submitted to misrepresentation, vilification and insult, without reply.

"The result is that his opponent has thrown all restraint to the winds. Senator Joseph A. Dixon, the national campaign manager of former President Roosevelt, has been permitted, without rebuke from his candidate, to insult the President of the United States. He has not only been permitted to charge the President with being 'a receiver of stolen goods,' without protest, but former President Roosevelt has repeated the charge on the stump.

"The time has now come when the American people will no longer sit idly by and see this unfair and malicious persecution and vilification continued by a man, and by the friends of a man who has already served two terms in the White House, by the votes of the Republican party, and who now, not only in violation of the unwritten law of the republic, but in violation of his own solemn promise to the nation, voluntarily given on the night of November 8, 1904, is seeking a third term on a national platform so un-Republican in nature that he dare not discuss it himself, as is shown by the recent speeches in Illinois, Pennsylvania, and New Hampshire.

"The fact that this candidate is now claiming to wear the mantle of Abraham Lincoln is evidence that the acme of demagogism in this country has been reached.

"Those States which have voted to elect delegates to the Republican national convention in Chicago might just as well realize now that the Republic as well as the Republican party has been placed in jeopardy by the issues raised by Theodore Roosevelt. They must realize that no man shall be President three terms, is an insurmountable obstacle to the success of any party in any national election in this country. They must realize that the proposal of the recall of judges and of judicial decisions is not only un-Republican but rank Socialism. The duty of Republicans towards such a platform and toward a candidate for the nomination on such a platform is therefore, plain.

"Including Pennsylvania, which according to latest advices, has given President Taft at least 11 votes in the national convention, the President has today 574 delegates instructed for or pledged to his renomination. He needs only 166 more delegates to insure his renomination. He is already assured of 372 more delegates, making his support in the Chicago convention 746 delegates, or more than two hundred majority.

"The President is in this fight to stay. He will be the nominee of the Republican convention at Chicago. In this connection it must not be forgotten that he was nominated four years ago without the votes of the States of Illinois, Pennsylvania, Indiana, New York, or Wisconsin. In this contest he is already assured of an overwhelming majority of the delegates from Indiana and New York, and if a large number of delegates in Pennsylvania, none of which voted for him in 1908."

OVER TAXED.

Hundreds of Portsmouth Readers Know What It Means.

The kidneys are over taxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backache, weariness, headache. Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, Bright's disease follow.

A Portsmouth citizen tells here a reliable remedy for kidney ills.

Leslie Whitehouse, 7 Thornton St., Portsmouth, N. H., says: "About a year ago I began to have trouble from my back and kidneys. Often a sharp catch darted through my body and became so bad that I could hardly move. There was also a dull, throbbing ache across my loins and the kidney secretions were highly colored and contained sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at F. H. McKim's Pharmacy, corrected my trouble and I have had no return at all."

HAD HIS LEG BADLY INJURED

George Adams a member of the fishing boat Advance of Newburyport, was badly injured this forenoon while engaged with the rest of the crew in making repairs on the engine of craft which was tied up at Stewart's wharf. The clothing of Adams was caught between the sprocket and fly wheels, drawing his left leg into the moving machinery in such a way that the fleshy part below the knee was badly jammed and lacerated.

The ambulance summoned to take the man to the hospital ran into an electric car on Congress street and one of the wheels badly damaged, causing much delay in getting to the dock.

Dr. E. B. Eastman who was called hurried him to the hospital. After the wounds were dressed Adams was able to be removed to the depot where he took a train for his home in Newburyport.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Editor Herald:

The Roosevelt ticket in Ward five contains the name of a man who it is alleged recently went to Boston and agreed to furnish labor for section work on the railroad for $1.00 per day, where the men are now receiving $1.50. The voters should think twice before they vote for such a friend of the laboring man.

LABORER

Editor Herald:

From reports it is understood that here is a move on foot to discard steam power at the city pumping station and adopt electricity. As a mechanic and a tax payer I cannot see where the city will be benefited by a change of this kind. It may be less expensive for a year or so but later I cannot see where the department of public works will be saving any great amount.

There are no small number of our citizens who believe that if electricity is used for the operation of pumps in the water department there is no reason why the city cannot afford its own lighting as well as pumping that it is best this matter should be seriously considered before any change is carried out.

It would be some time before the lighting proposition could be considered owing to the present contract which exists between the city and the lighting company and if anything is to be done it will be a safe plan to wait till the expiration of that agreement.

Editor Herald:

With the allowance of a small amount of space in your valuable paper, I wish to say a few words on behalf of the District Nursing Association and of the good woman who is engaged in carrying out the work of that organization.

This association is a blessing to this city as its work shows, ever since the day it began to care for sick and needy. With all that it has done, it does not receive the consideration that it should from the public and I trust that in the future the good people of Portsmouth when they are bent on charity they will ever overlook this association. Go among the poor and sick and one will be convinced just what has been done, and what the every day work of a district nurse means to a city.

A woman can accomplish more than the lady who is employed by the association. Give her a helping hand and your reward will be twofold.

ONE WHO KNOWS

A FRIEND OF LABOR.

Editor of the Herald—The Roosevelt ticket in ward five contains the name of a man, who it is alleged recently went to Boston and agreed to furnish labor for section work on the railroad for $1.00 per day, where the men are now receiving $1.50. The voters should think twice before they vote for such a friend of the laboring man.

FIREGRAPHS.

Where is that horse and other things that were to be purchased with money left from last years fire department appropriation.

It does not look like any very extensive repairs on the apparatus this year.

It looks as if the Col. Siae boys of George Palfrey's boat in the sailing match.

Those eight fire alarm boxes left out of the Yeast club's pamphlet will probably come in on the next tide. Perhaps when that new auto chemical goes into commission, large fires will be few.

There seems to be some worry in regard to the disposal of the old combination wagon.

The mayor of Chicopee, Mass., says there is not a fire station in the city fit for firemen to live in. The same here.

A fire occurred in Leominster, Mass., last week which took six hours to extinguish. The new auto truck remained in quarters.

OBSEQUIES.

NICHOLS SENTENCED.
Pleads Guilty to Larceny and Goes to the Reformatory.

Seth T. Nichols, who while under arrest for drunkenness in this city said he was the slayer of Dr. Helen Knabe in Indianapolis, was sentenced to the reformatory Monday by Judge Sanderson in superior court in Boston for larceny. He pleaded guilty.

He stole clothing and jewelry from his sister-in-law, Della Lyons of 367A Tremont street. He retracted what he said about the murder after he recovered from the effects of the liquor and declared he was on board the U. S. S. Dixie at the time. That statement will be looked up when the Dixie returns to Boston.

THE HERALD HEARS

That an Eliot man with a crane of hogs was forced to reload the swine on Vaughan street on Monday by Officer West.

That the animals were packed in like sardines.

That the owner did not like the job, but he had to come to it.

That tonight is the night for the politician.

That local engineers of the Boston & Maine are on the anxious seat.

That the price of coal in Dover is still less than Portsmouth.

That the superior court at Exeter will last two weeks longer.

That the clubs of the Sunset League will be stronger than last year.

Rumors relative to liquor licenses and liquor business are flying thick and fast.

That one wholesale establishment will change hands.

That the dog man will soon be looking them up.

A Big Fashion Number.

"Summer Fashions" will be the title of the Big Fashion Number edited by May Manton, to be given with New York Sunday World of May 5.

The demand for the special number will be great, so it is advisable to order from your newsdealer in advance. The big sixteen page Joke Book will be given next Sunday April 28th, as usual, and another Joke Book will be given with the Fashion Number on May 6th. These Joke Books given with the Sunday World have made the biggest hit of anything since the introduction of color pages in newspapers nearly twenty years ago.

BIRD LECTURE.

Illustrated with his own water color paintings and accompanied with studied imitations of the songs of each species, together with pianoforte interpretations and interesting comparisons with the motives of the great composers, Dr. Schuyler Matthews will tell about "Bird Music and its Relations to the Master Musicians."

Association hall, April 25, 8 p. m. Admission, 25 cents. Young people under 18 year of age, 10 cents.

The attempt of the Roosevelt workers, headed by John F. Bass, to make it appear that a different kind of a ticket has been prepared here than was agreed by the state committee shows the desperate methods employed at the last moments.

The cowardly attempt to take away from Senator Gallinger and others the credit for the great work in building of this navy yard, will, it is believed, be resented by the citizens of Portsmouth by a tremendous vote for Taft.

WHEN YOU'RE DOWN AND OUT.

If you've money or position, Or you luckily have both, Few will be in a condition Not to welcome friendship's growth. Trust themselves and you, how- ever.

Anyone may be in doubt: But they'll cease all such endeavor When you're down and out.

If your business is progressing, Old acquaintances and new For your friendship will be pressing: For your deep regard they'll stun you Overwhelm you, then, about; But how quickly they will shun you, When you're down and out.

"He is such a right good fellow!" Some will say of you, perhaps, And the greeting will be mellow Of those sympathetic chaps, When your good financial standing Is not possibly in doubt! Oh, but what a brand they're handing, When you're down and out.

Some would take back what they gave you, Even show you disrespect; Nor can former greatness save you From the coldness of neglect; It's astonishing how quickly Friendship can be put to rout, By the troubles forming thickly, When you're down and out.

By the simplest possible arrangement of flues, heat from the fire-box is made to circle over, on both sides, under, and back of the oven. THIRTY-FIVE KILLED WHEN TORNADO STRUCK ILLINOIS

Hundreds of Houses Destroyed and Great Damage Done to Wires.

Chicago, April 22.—The tornado which late yesterday swept over Central and Southern Illinois and Northwestern Indiana, killed at least 35 persons and injured nearly 200 others, according to advice received here early today.

Miles of telegraph and telephone wires were blown down, farmhouses were demolished in the path of the storm, and it is probable that the death list will be increased when communication is restored with all points over which the tornado passed. The property damage by the storm is certain to run into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

At Bush, a village in Williamson County, the greatest loss of life occurred, 18 persons having been killed and more than 40 injured. Nearly every dwelling in the village was either destroyed or damaged. Most of the dead were foreigners who worked in the coal mines at Bush.

At Morocco, Ind., 9 persons were crushed to death in the collapse of their houses, while 50 others were bruised by flying debris and thousands of dollars' worth of property was destroyed. Twenty houses were blown down in and near Morocco, and fully 40 inhabitants in Newton County were destroyed.

As near as can be judged, the tornado started in Iroquois, Ill., and swept eastward. Stock was killed when farm buildings went down.

Morocco is only five miles north of Hazelton, George Ade's country home. It has not been learned

At Grant Park, Ill., half a dozen persons were injured and damage amounting to more than $100,000 was caused.

The family of Nelson Hulce, at the village of Campus, was almost wiped out. Hulce, his wife and oldest daughter were killed and two other children were severely injured. Trolley lines throughout the storm-swept district suffered heavy damage on account of the destruction of the poles.

The loss of life in the towns which are in communication with the outside world follows:

Bush, 18 dead, 40 injured.
Willisville, 5 dead, 40 injured.
Campus, 3 dead, 6 injured.
Morocco, 9 dead, 13 injured.

"THE TURNING POINT."

A Photo Play Showing the Modern Method of Swindling.

The photo plays at Music hall Monday evening included the Pathé Weekly, showing some interesting events in various parts of the world. Those showing a snowbound train at Gem, Kans., and the methods employed to remove the snow were of considerable interest. Others showing the workings of a flood were good.

"The Turning Point" was the title of a play which started by showing an old lady depositing her money at the bank. A little later she is seen reading the advertisement of a mining firm who offer big returns on investments. The lady answers the advertisement and is informed that if she will come to the city she will be met by a representative of the company and given the privilege of purchasing the last of the unsold stock. She is delighted with the prospect, draws her money from the bank, goes to the city and is met by one of the men. He takes her to the office, where, with the assistance of the other two men, they proceed to issue her the bogus stock. The old lady inquires the time and seeing the picture of a lady in the watch case, asks who it is and is told that it is the young man's mother. This incident brings back to the young man memories of his mother and his conscience troubles him. He returns with the lady to the station. Returning to the office he takes possession of the money and goes to the woman and gives it back to her.

"Boss of Lumber Camp, No. 4" was a very interesting picture, showing the father of a reckless young man sending him into the logging camp of a friend, thinking that the chance would be good for him. While there the young man's sister visits him, and the boss of the camp proceeds to fall in love with her. Her brother cheats during a card game, gets into trouble and is defended by the boss. There are some lively scenes for a while, but everything ends well.

Other pictures were "The Cattle King's Daughter," and the "Midget Sherlock Holmes."

Miss Allie Franklin sang "When the Clover is Wet With Dew" and "Every Little Note Means Love."

NATIONAL TEXTILE EXHIBITION.

The rhythmic clack of the shuttle, the whirr of the loom, the smell of the well-oiled machinery and the silent but ever watchful operator of the great textile producers of the busy mill communities have all been transplanted in perfect detail to the Third National Textile Exhibition which opened Monday, April 22 in Mechanics Building, Boston. One has but to step within the radius of this active to imagine that he is on a tour of inspection of one of New England's greatest industrial centers.

The attendance was very large Monday, the opening day, and it is estimated that 8000 persons visited the exhibition during the day and night. Those that did attend certainly found much to interest them, for it is possible to watch the forming of the fabric from one stage of de-

SPRING MEETING NEW HAMPSHIRE BOARD OF TRADE

Will Be Held at Exeter,
Tuesday, May 7

The spring quarterly meeting of the New Hampshire Board of Trade will be held, upon the invitation of the Exeter Board, at the probate court room in that town, on Tuesday May 7th, 1912.

There will be forenoon and afternoon sessions, at 11 and 2 o'clock respectively, such general matters of business as may be presented being considered at the morning session.

In the afternoon two important topics will be considered, the first of which, "Road Making and Maintaining" will be presented by Hon. S. Percy Hooker, the recently appointed State Superintendent of Highways, followed by discussion.

Hon. Eugene E. Reed, of Manchester, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of that city and President of the Association, will speak of the newly projected Agricultural Fair at Rockingham Park, Salem, to be held next August, and which, it is expected, will be of great advantage to the agricultural interests of the state, which address, also, will be followed by general discussion.

Dinner will be served for those in attendance, at the Swampscott House at 75 cents per plate.

The Exeter Board of Trade will extend every possible courtesy, and opportunity will be afforded for visiting various points of interest in this beautiful historic town, including the world-famous Phillips Exeter Academy.

regulates the atmosphere conditions to suit them to the various processes of manufacture. Carding, spinning, and weaving are some of the conspicuous processes, and there are drying machines and conditioning machines, which because of their size and complexity are attracting much attention.

The basement is devoted this year to the First Annual Power Show, under the auspices of the New England Association of Commercial Engineers. This department is attracting the attention of the manufacturer who knows that in the Power department lies one of the greatest factors of successful manufacturing. The women visitors to the exhibition also found much to admire in the finished goods department. Some of the largest department stores in Boston have made exhibits, and have arranged with the management to send a large number of their employees handling dry goods to familiarize themselves with the details of development to the next, and to watch the operation of machinery which manufactures.

On Wednesday and Thursday, April 24th and 25th, the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers will hold their convention and meetings in Mechanics Building, and on Friday and Saturday the Master Mechanics Association of America will meet.

Mrs. Melinda Quincy of Brockton Mass., is visiting friends in this city.

In the matter of tow boat busting, the following will be hard to equal. On Saturday morning at 3 o'clock, the tug Portsmouth, Capt. Perkins, left here with Barge No. 21 of the Consolidation Coal Co. She stopped at Gloucester to pick up Barge No. 8, and then proceeded with both barges to Boston, where she coaled up. She then returned to Portsmouth and immediately left again for Boston with two loaded bulk barges of the P. N. Co., and Consolidation Coal Co.'s barge No. 20. She then started once more for Portsmouth, having in tow Consolidation Co.'s loaded barges Nos. 5 and 7, and arrived in the lower harbor on Sunday at 5 p. m. In the language of the day, this may properly be termed "going some." Also "can you beat it?" and furthermore, "What do you know about that?"

It is understood that Robert Forsyth has sold his well known cruising power boat "Quohaug" to Boston parties.

Relief is in sight for the long depleted coal bins of Old York. The three masted schooner "Nellie F. Sawyer" is in the lower harbor with a cargo of coal at a price sufficient to curl the hair of the average citizen.

NEW CASTLE

Surrounded by loving relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Curtis celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on Saturday. Their handsome home was beautifully decorated with potted plants and hot house flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis were assisted in receiving by Miss Myra F. Belcor, Miss Ruth A. Marvin and Mrs. Charles Probaska, Sr. The gifts received by Mr. and Mrs. Curtis were handsome and numerous, conspicuous among which was a large sum of money in gold. During the day congratulations poured in by letters, postals and were from those being unable to attend this festive occasion. Delicious and dainty refreshments were served. Mr. Curtis is rounding out his life with mental and physical capacities unimpaired, and the partner of his joys and sorrows is enjoying the same blessing. All join in breathing this prayer that they may live a good number of years to walk together life's golden sands until they reach that better place, the house not made with hands. Mrs. Jessie Wargo has returned from a brief visit in Portland.

Miss Marie Corvieve of Portsmouth passed Sunday with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan L. Maloon, who have been visiting relatives, have returned to their home in New York. Miss Florence Annable of Portsmouth has arrived and opened her cottage for the summer.

Miss Annie E. Leary after a brief visit has returned to her home in Andover.

Mrs. Fred Tibbels who has been the guest of Mrs. Sarah White and family, has returned to her home on Spectacle Island, Mass.

Messrs. Amory and Scott Meloon of Kennebunk passed Sunday with their mother.

"THE CONFESSION."

"The Confession" that will be seen at the Portsmouth Theatre on April 25th, comes to this City after a long and successful engagement at the Bijou Theatre, Broadway, New York City.

"The Confession" uses in its theme life's most vital subjects telling a story that is consistent, interesting and with a strong uplift. A priest a mother, a sweetheart, an innocent man condemned to death are among the central figures of this play of today. It is claimed that no more absorbing tragedy has ever been conceived, nor greater stage picture and lesson ever presented. The subject produces material for a play that would be of unusual interest and unlike anything else ever produced. M. James Halleck Reid, the author has submitted his play to the public in the belief that the theatre-goer would welcome a play with real life interest, dramatic worth, consistency of plot and literary merit. To this end has he labored. The local of the play is placed at Gloucester, Mass., Charlestown, Mass., and Boston, Mass. The scenes depicted are the Rectory of "Our Lady of Mercy Church," Gloucester, the preliminary court room, Gloucester, the prison at Charlestown, Mass., and the Governor's office at Boston. The time of the play is the present. There is a pretty love story, and a delicious vein of comedy running through the play that relieve its tender moments.

PYTHIAN CLUB.

The Members are Pleasantly Entertained by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoyt. The members of the Pythian Club were entertained at their last meeting by Mr. and Mrs. C. Edgar Hoyt of Vaughan street. About twenty five members of the club were present and the evening was pleasantly passed with both vocal and instrumental music. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. The gathering was one of the most enjoyable of the present season, and the party unanimously voted Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt ideal entertainers.

AN OPEN LETTER

Portsmouth, N. H., April 23, 1912.

W. B. Rotch, Esq.,
Secretary Roosevelt League,
Concord, N. H.

Dear Sir:—

I have read your political advertisements in today's newspapers in which you attempt to drag the Boston & Maine Railroad into the Republican factional fight in this state. I do not believe you prepared these advertisements. I believe you were induced to sign by persons in whose employ you are.

The Boston & Maine Railroad is not in politics in New Hampshire and you should not lend yourself to the publication of paid advertisements to the contrary.

I believe there will be a popular reaction against men who think to obtain political advantage by falsely accusing the Boston & Maine Railroad.

Yours truly,
JOHN W. KELLEY.

N. B.—I write you this letter entirely on my own authority. I attempted to call your erroneous statements to the attention of Mr. Rich, the General Solicitor, in order that he might reply, but he is away. I shall publish this letter (at my personal expense) before you receive it, but this is justified by the untruths in your advertisements.

SOME OF THE METHODS USED BY BROTHER JOHN

The Union's Answer to the Falsehoods Published By the Roosevelt Supporters

The allusion in the Roosevelt advertisement on the third page of today's issue of The Union to the Mount Washington railway is an impressive illustration of what "a wolf in sheep's clothing, John P. Bass of Chicago, is and to what despicable attempts to achieve his purpose he attempts to achieve his purpose. Coming here, as he went to North Dakota (where he got "knocked over the ropes") to get delegates for Roosevelt, under cover of darkness he spends his days writing speeches for his spellbinders to deliver from the stump as the exclusive advocates of the "square deal," of equal and exact justice to all, and especially the dear "peepul," "decency" and honesty in all things; and he creeps into newspaper offices after business hours, with the grossest misrepresentations and misstatements, in an endeavor to take advantage of the prejudices of the people, for which he studies more than political principles or public policies. He has the money in abundance to pay for their publication, and if a paper refuses to be the agency of his contemptible purpose, he will welcome the alternative of having his speakers howl that publicity is denied his cause in the usual channels.

A Union reporter obtained from H. A. Kimball, Saturday afternoon, a copy of the engineer's plan of the projected scenic railway up Mount Washington, upon which they had been at work for nearly a year. It is a proposition that has interested New Hampshire people very much. Only a few days before other papers had printed the statement the proposition had been abandoned. Asked about that, Mr. Kimball said it was inaccurate. The fact and the plans, made public for the first time, was a fine piece of exclusive news for all New England. The Union was proud to get it in advance of the Boston papers. Mr. Kimball explained the plan willingly, but said, he did not feel that he could give out anything definite about it, more than that it had not been abandoned. Pressed further, he admitted the only uncertainty was when and from whence the money to finance it was to come. A more temperate or fairer news story was never printed. The whole story was printed exclusively in The Union and was read by thousands of New Hampshire people.

John Bass finds the tide running against him in his job of getting Roosevelt delegates. North Dakota haunts him. It is the eve of the caucus. He is desperate. He participated in a victorious campaign here in 1910, in which the Boston and Maine had been made an issue. Such lies as that Gallinger was managing the Taft campaign and that none but reactionaries were for Taft here, had failed of their intent. He grasps the Boston and Maine spectre. He unobtrusively prepares copy for an advertisement that reads as referred to. He knows it is a lie that the "Boston and Maine Takes a Hand," he knows it is a lie that Mr. Kimball said "in print that if New Hampshire supports Roosevelt the railroad controlled by the New Haven system and the J. P. Morgan syndicate will not spend $1,500,000 on the Mount Washington scenic railway." He knows that no mention was made of "New Haven" or "Morgan," he knows it was clearly stated that the project would have to be financed through the Concord and Montreal, which is owned by New Hampshire interests. He knows that no one has charged the Boston and Maine with contributing a single dollar to politics in New Hampshire since Mr. Mellen came to its presidency. He knows that Mr. Kimball indulged in no threats. How cunning, how many of this Chicago gent to pen his bare faced lies and then ask: "Will the Boston and Maine spend $1,500,000 to carry the state for Taft?" thinking no one would expose until so late that it would not be undertaken.

If Mr. Bass wins one campaign here by such dastardly tactics and hypocrisy, it will be but one. New Hampshire people have been conservative and slow, but they have been sane and sound. Smart fellows, "gold bricked" them to some extent in other lines for a time, but only temporarily, and it will be nothing more than that politically. Manches for Union.

The Boston & Maine Railroad Takes a Hand

Hon. Benjamin A. Kimball, President Concord & Montreal Railroad says in print: "That if New Hampshire supports Roosevelt the railroad controlled by the New Haven system and J. P. Morgan syndicate will not spend one million five hundred thousand dollars on the Mt. Washington Scenic Railway"

Will the Railroad Invest the $1,500,000 to Carry the State for Taft?

Is Mr. Kimball's proposal a bribe or a threat?

This machine works for Special Privilege--the rule of the minority. Mr. Voter--You do your own thinking, why not do your own voting?

Look at the New York Boss tactics where thousands did not have a chance to vote because the polls were blocked by machine adherence and Roosevelt men could not reach their turn because the polls were closed.

Is it not singular that the Ward Two Committee should pick their delegates exclusively and mix the Roosevelt candidates in a miscellaneous column so they could not be identified?

Taft does not believe in majority vote, but in rule by a "representative part of the people."

You never heard of any talk of the Navy Yard during Roosevelt's administration.

Who has been the friend of the workingman and who let us have the six million dollars for buildings and permanent improvements alone, the quay wall, completion of Henderson's Point, the mammoth dry dock, started the naval prison and hospital, machinery plant, Saturday half holiday in summer, Federal Employers Liability act, increase pay for enlisted men?

Roosevelt sent the big ships to Portsmouth for their home port. What has become of his policies? Ask Taft's advisors.

Mr. Republican--Can you guess the reason why certain politicians in Nashua and Portsmouth wanted to limit the voting to one hour?

Roosevelt is in favor of direct presidential primaries and so "that every one who can vote to elect a president is able to help nominate, and Nebraska, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Oregon, where all the representatives have a chance to vote, the result was an overwhelming victory for Roosevelt.

W. B. ROTCH,
Secretary, Roosevelt League.
